

I believe this petition is a bad idea. It makes no sense to award an upgrade to someone just because they have held a license for 20 years.

Someone who has been inactive for the entire 10 years since their last license renewal would be eligible to upgrade. That makes NO sense at all.

I see no value in this proposal. This is just more of the disease of 'Get something for nothing' and 'There is such a thing as a free lunch'. Most of the problems in this country can be traced to the lack of accountability for personal actions, and this proposal is just another example of 'getting something for nothing'.
